January 16, 1955 - February 6, 2018

Janet Sue Detter Margul, 63, passed away in Plano, TX on February 6, 2018.

Janet

was born January 16, 1955, in Bartlesville, OK where she spent her childhood before graduating from College High School in 1973. Janet continued her education at the University of Oklahoma, graduating in 1977. While at OU she meet her future husband, Michael Margul. The two were married June 1977. They made their home in Dallas and soon moved to Plano, TX. Janet and Mike were blessed with a daughter, Lisa, in 1980.

Janet pursued a career in journalism, holding the positions of Lifestyle Editor at the

Plano Star Courier and Assistant Editor at the McKinney Courier-gazette before transitioning to a career as a graphic artist. She owned Weebee Graphics where she excelled as a graphic designer.

Janet was very active in the Girl Scouts being Lisa's Troop leader, GS cookie chair, founder and director of a GS summer evening camp called Twilight Hollow. Janet was a pioneer in the online web communities, particularly in the crafting world. Janet brought artists and crafters from all over the world together. She was an artist, she excelled in painting and enjoyed rubber stamping. Janet was an advocate for others, serving on the board of the Samaritan Inn homeless shelter, and working with the local Aids population in the 1980's when it was all too often a death sentence. years later she was president of her local chapter of the National Organization for Women. Janet enjoyed traveling worldwide, was an avid reader. She lived her life with compassion for others, integrity, and when she decided to do something she went all in. She had a sense of fun and adventure, was a friend and mentor to many as she never met a stranger. She will be missed by the many lives she touched. Janet was preceded in death by her beloved mother, Glenn Sue Detter. She is survived by her father, Clyde Detter. Husband, Michael Margul, daughter, Lisa Margul.
