“ Janice will be greatly missed by her family and friends. Janice knew how to have a good time and always was friendly to everyone! She was cheerful and happy everytime we saw her. It was evident how much she loved her family. May God give you all peace.

“ I am very sorry for your loss. May the precious memories from a life well lived, help ease your sorrow. I find the Scriptures to be very comforting. John 5:28-29; Revelation 21:3-4 and 1Cor.15:26; are three such that I pray will comfort you during this time.

“ To a true angel and our family will miss you in all of our lives. I recall the first meeting I had with you and I announced to you that I was going to marry Denny. You just gave me a look and said ok. We spent years doing lots of things and lots of laughs. We met in 1962 and I loved you as if you were my own sister. I can not say good bye but will meet you again in Heaven. Thank you for all you have done for me and the kids and the love you gave Denny. You were and are loved so very much. your sister in law Pat Wickliffe Kalbfleisch.
