

Janie Marie Haney

October 4, 1974 - May 27, 2017

Janie Marie Haney, 42, died May 27, 2017 in Bartlesville.

Janie was born October 4, 1974 in McAlester, Oklahoma to parents Jack Wade and Sandra Davis. Janie worked in the Foreign Currency department for Conoco Phillips Canada.

Janie was outgoing and stayed very active- she was always on the go and doing something. This may be attributed to all of the coffee she consumed; she loved her coffee and would drink it all day. Janie enjoyed many crafts, such as making scrapbooks, wood working, vinyl designs, and stickers. Her true passion was the racetrack though. For the past decade, Janie could be found in her #13 black and pink Monte Carlo tearing down the straightaways and sliding into the corners in Caney, Humboldt, Creek County, and South Coffeyville.

Her family and many friends will truly miss her kind heart and adventurous spirit.

Janie is survived by her two sons, Jesse Snook and Chance Wade, both of Bartlesville; one grandson, Wyatt Wade of Cleveland, Oklahoma; her mother Sandra Wade, and father Jack Wade, both of Dewey; a brother Mark Wade and wife Emily of Dewey; a sister, Becky Smith of Tulsa; aunts and uncles, Rosie McCarty of Wichita Falls, Texas, Cecil Wade and wife Vivian of McAlester, Oklahoma and Betty Hurt of Chowchilla, California and numerous nieces and nephews.

Janie was preceded in death by her grandparents Cecil and Mary Jane Wade, Thurman and Jeanette Alexander and Herbert Davis.

A funeral service will be held on Monday, June 5, 2017 at 2pm at the Dewey School Auditorium with Jason Wilson officiating. Interment will follow at the Dewey Cemetery.

Food and gifts may be taken to the Washington County Adult Center at 301 E. Angus in Dewey, Oklahoma.

Memorial contributions are requested to a college fund set up for her son, Jesse, at Truity Credit Union.

“ Janie, Mark and I went to school together for many years and ill never forget her laugh it was so contagious and unmistakable. I use to watch her race and went with her a couple of times as pit crew..we both shared the love of racing. I will miss watching her and hearing her laugh. My prayers are with Mark, her boys and the rest of the family. R.I.P. my friend until we meet again. 🙏🥹

When we were talking about opening a store together down town Bartlesville, I remember how much we laughed because I was going to have the door bell recorded to our business as your infectious "laugh" I think we laughed till we cried..and the more you laughed, the more we cried! I will miss you forever my Best Friend!! Rest in Peace,. I love you always!
