“ I was Jason's math teacher at TCC and enjoyed having him in class. That was only the beginning of our friendship. Jason was a warm, friendly, kind-hearted man. No matter what he was dealing with in life, he always managed a smile or a kind word. I am very grateful to have know him and will miss his sweet spirit. He loved his daughter and shared with me about their special times together. He was a proud father and I know he will missed by everyone who loved him.
