“ Our favorite time as a family is when we took Jason on a trip to Colorado and I ask him if he wanted to drive? He really enjoyed driving in the mountains. Not sure i ever told his mom so i hope I'm not in trouble. Another thing he enjoyed on that trip was riding a horse named Sarge. Great memories, were going to miss him.

Rick Stull - December 14, 2017 at 06:08 PM

SS

Oh yes! I totally forget about Sarge. Now that you say that, I can remember the picture we have of Jason on him! That was fun!

“ My first memories of Jason begin at sunset country club almost 30 years ago. From junior golf to swimming and even the picnics/member potluck meals by the large trees (down the hill from the pool) with the concrete tables and all of the holiday parties - as he and I always tried to make it to the kids Christmas party (each and every year) As we grew older and sunset was laid to rest as God requested your presence Jason to accompany him in heaven - you will always be my buddy from sunset country club - Sending hugs and prayers to the family (especially Barbara and Sandra.

“ Jason was taken from this world before he could complete his life journey. He wanted to see Japan and learn more about its history of tradition, honor, courtesy, and dignity. He wanted to visit the hills of Ireland to stop in at a pub for a stout beer. He wanted to shoot his firearms that he never had a chance to chamber. He's got models still in the box waiting to be built.

I know sometimes he felt as though his earthly body prevented him from doing a lot of things. However, now we all know he is flying high in heaven... doing all the things he thought he'd never do and much more. I bet everything I have, that he's already asked St. Michael what he can do to help protect all of us.
