“ Jay Arnold will be missed in the years to come and our hearts melt with his passing. Yet at the same time we know of the HOPE that we share with Jay—eternal life in Christ. As I continue to pray for all the Arnolds and Hopkins, I feel blessed to have sat in his kitchen and watch him chef up some of the best egg omelettes for my wife Marcie and I. Thank you Jay for the man your son Jason is to love and care for my daughter Kristin. We love you!

“ Jay was a bit of sunshine and laughter wherever he happened to be. A lifetime friend to anyone he met. Jay will be greatly missed by all. We can only imagine the joy Jay is experiencing in heaven. Until we meet again, give my sister, Genise a hug for me. Or a tug on her hair, your choice Jay!
