“ *Jeannette was a close friend to my daughter Christy. Those two were always into something. We lived about 1/4 mile apart. So they went back & forth. They were there for each other thru good & bad times. Jeannette was a bridesmaid for Christy & remained a close friend in the years following, including Christy's being widowed. Christy helped support her during the difficult times of losing her babies & divorce. They might not see each other for months, but took up like they had seen each other a few days ago. It was a true lifelong friendship. I am sorry to see it cut short. I know her husband & parents & siblings are struggling with the loss. I am so very sorry this has happened. She was a sweet woman and will be greatly missed. I pray that God will bring you all comfort during this time. God bless and comfort you wth the good memories from Jeanette's life. Love to all.
