

Jeffrey Todd Curtis

February 22, 1960 - February 22, 2025

Jeffrey Todd Curtis, 65, passed away on February 22, 2025, in Tulsa, Oklahoma. He was born on February 22, 1960, in Parsons, Kansas to Bill and Patricia Curtis.

Jeff had a passion for adventure and craftsmanship. He spent many years working as a traveling welder, a career that allowed him to explore different places while honing his skills. His love for travel extended beyond work—he found great joy in visiting new destinations and experiencing the world. One of his favorite pastimes was riding his Harley, especially down the coast of Florida to the southernmost point of the USA. He also enjoyed scuba diving, and he especially cherished trips to Aruba, where he could immerse himself in the beauty of the ocean. When he wasn't traveling or diving, Jeff enjoyed woodworking and riding his Harley, embracing both creativity and the open road.

He is survived by his son Dustin Curtis; his daughter Leah Alford and her husband Logan; grandsons Lucas, Damon, and Oliver; and twin granddaughters expected to arrive soon. He also leaves behind four sisters: Cindy Jones (Mike), Kathy Agee, Kelley Ferrier (John), and Patty Adams (Dusty), along with many nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who will miss him dearly. Jeff was preceded in death by his parents, Bill and Patricia Curtis, as well as his great-nephew Bentley Jones.

“ Jeff and I worked together often thru the years. He had just hired on with us when he returned to Ocheta for his travel trailer. That weekend he was hit by the truck. We took his tool boxes back when it became clear he wouldn't need them for awhile. June and I miss you bud. Keep them laughing up there.
