“ *To Jerome’s family
Please accept my condolence.
I got to know Jerome when I worked in Schlumberger, Bartlesville and also in Russia. We worked on various projects together.
He was a good friend and was always kind, patient, helpful and full of wisdom.
I will always remember our time at the gun club in Bartlesville and Russia doing something that he enjoyed and excelled in.
Jerome will be deeply missed.

“ Jerome was a great friend. I am Samantha's mother. He took me many times to doctor appointments when I needed him to. He would come over and watch the grand kids while I had some other things to go do like labs. He was a helpful, giving and just a nice person. I know of others like me drove and took places. He will truly be missed. He was just a great giving and caring person. You don't find people like him often. He would go get lunch (Happy Donalds) as Liam called it and bring it to his grand kids for lunch many times . Just because he knew they loved getting a lunch and toy from them. He was a great grand pa.

I am terribly saddened to hear of Jerry's passing. He and I were good friends in High School. We had many good times together. He is as a very jovial guy and fun to be around. My condolences to the Dowd family.
