

Jerry Ann Lay

June 23, 1951 - August 16, 2025

Jerry Ann Lay, 74, of Bartlesville, passed away peacefully on August 16, 2025.

She was born in Caney, Kansas, to Ernie and Ruby Heape. Jerry Ann married the love of her life, Lloyd Lay, with whom she shared 42 wonderful years.

Jerry Ann earned her bachelor's degree in education, and throughout her life she carried a love of learning, creativity, and family. She had a passion for classic cars and spent many joyful hours alongside Lloyd building cars and attending car shows together. She also had a special love for cats and enjoyed caring for them. In addition, she proudly helped operate the family business, where her hard work and dedication left a lasting impact.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her brother, Ray Heape; and her nephew, Bo Sellers.

Jerry Ann is survived by her devoted husband, Lloyd Lay; her sister, Sharron Sellers; her stepsons, Doug Lay and Scotty Lay; grandsons, Tyler Lay, Payton Lay, and Jason Lay; five great-grandchildren with one more soon to arrive; as well as many dear friends who will deeply miss her.

Jerry Ann will be remembered for her loving spirit, her strength, and the joy she brought to everyone around her.

“ Nice memories of working with Jerry at Gibson's/H&G Pharmacy in the 70's as well as a few fun adventures along the way.

“ I first met Jerry in the summer of 1983 after I had moved to Bartlesville from Joplin, MO. We both worked at H&G Pharmacy. She immediately became a good friend. She was always very helpful and willing to help out in anything you needed. We did a lot of things together, from going to concerts, eating lunch, shopping, she even gave me home perms!! I learned a lot of things from Jerry. After around 9 years I moved back to Joplin, but I came to visit her every now and then. The visits were less and less over the years, but we kept in contact with each other. Can't believe she is gone. I will sure miss her. Rest in Peace my friend. ❤️
