“ Timmons Family: I went to school with Jessie, but moved away right after and hadn't seen him since. As a fellow veteran, I honor his service in the Air Force.

I remember Jessie as the red-headed kid who always had a smile on his face and was just one of the nicest people in our class. He always had time to talk and was just a pleasant person to be around. Reading the other entries, it sounds like he stayed that way his entire life. Few people can stay so honestly cheerful and upbeat for so long, so Jessie was a special person.

I hope you can find comfort in each other and in your faith. God bless you and may Jessie rest in peace.

“ Jess, I worked with him the past 3 years right before he retired. We worked on a project to get rid of old forms in the warehouse so I talked to him almost every other day and had to go out a lot to look at items. I also graduated at Dewey Highschool in 1973. He was a very good employee, very helpful and always in a great mood. I would bring him and the whole staff donuts. He will be missed. I know he loved fishing I just wish he could have done that many more years. We never know when God will call us up. Just know he was well respected and good person here at work and will be missed by many. Vicki (Sheline) Royer

“ I was so sad to hear of Jesse's death. I am glad he got to retire and enjoy life for at least a little while. He was always so helpful when he worked at the storage center. He never grumbled even if I messed up. He always had a smile. I know this will be especially hard for you, Suzanne. You and family are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ I remember so many things it's hard to even begin. He once skied in his levi's behind our boat. Once he wanted to run the bases at a softball game to test his speed after one of our girls had played. He was the first one there in the middle of the night when Lee Ann was born. He also took her binkie later out of her mouth and she didn't like him for a short time. I remember one of your first dates with him when we went to the country club with Jim Carter. He will surely be missed. You were blessed to have him. We will all miss that gentle voice and big smile.
