“ Jessie was a precious lady. I was her classmate in LPN school at Tri County Tech in 1973-74. I sat beside her and we shared alot of laughs. She made me feel important and loved.

“ *When I came home from West Germany in 1969 a couple of weeks before my husband was discharged from the Army, Jessie and Virgil came to see me and our two month old daughter at our Dad's home. They were the first visitors to come see us and they brought with them a baby bed. The baby bed was the one they had for their daughter. What a precious gift. Jessie was a Prayer Warrior. She didn't question God's timing and continued to pray for answers to her prayers. Everyone in our family loved Jessie and her smile. I will always love and miss my sister.
