

Jim Eagle Wood

December 2, 1938 - January 2, 2017

Jim Eagle Wood was born December 02, 1938 in Helena, Arkansas to Jim Paul Wood and Ann Delilah Capalener. He passed away January 2, 2017 at his home in Nowata, Oklahoma.

He was adopted by his Grandparents, Eagle and Nettie Jane Wood when he was 2 years old, but had lived with them from his birth.

He served in the US Army from May 1958- March 1964. He was a heavy equipment operator, and served in Korea with clean-up operations after the war.

He was a long haul trucker after the service, and retired in 2001.

He married Ruth (Vinita) Phillips September 26, 1998.

He is preceded in death by his parents, grandparents and one half-brother Paul Wood.

He is survived by his wife Ruth of the home, Stepdaughter Carey Jean Pearsall and Husband David. Stepsons, LeeRoy V Phillips. Ralph A Phillips and Wife Jeanette; Philip W Phillips, Gary D Phillips and one half-sister Elizabeth Wise and husband Jeff and family of Kansas City, Kansas.

We want to thank a very special person, Rosella King, his sister-in-law. She was always there and ready to step in when I really needed help.

Cremation will be by Stumpff Funeral Home of Nowata with no service, and remains at Nowata Memorial Cemetery. He was under the care of Rivercross Hospice of Bartlesville at the time of his death, with one very special person named Robin who was with him at the end.

He died of Alzheimer's, but will always be remembered as saying, "Where are we headed" and "What's our load".
