I remember playing golf with Uncle Jimmie at Sooner Park Golf Course when I was a teenager. I enjoyed those times with him. He was a good golfer but didn't take it too seriously when he made a bad shot like all golfers make from time to time. He kept his sense of humor at those times, which is a big reason why it's a good memory for me. Aunt Susan, I will be praying for you, that the Lord Jesus will comfort you in your loss. -- Love, Gerald Cullison
