“My sympathy and prayers for all of John's family. I was saddened to hear of his death. I first new John when he and Sharon lived in Coffeyville and then reconnected at John's Kitchen. We were active in Jaycees together in Coffeyville. A long time ago; great memories; lots of fun. RIP, John. Glad our paths crossed. Nancy Misch Wright

“So Very Sorry To Hear About John. Had no idea He was sick or anything. Haven't Seen Him in Years & was hoping He was enjoying retirement. It was a shock to read about His passing. He was a Real Gentleman & We always enjoyed His smiling Face . Great memory was The First Night of opening "John's Kitchen & Pub" where Mike & I stayed up Late at the Bar with He & Martha drinking & laughing & just having a good time. May God Rest His Soul. Thoughts & Prayers are With John & All who knew & Loved Him. May You Rest In Peace John. God Bless. (Marianne & Mike Diakiw)
