Mr. Akers was born in Oklahoma City of July 18, 1931 the son of Joe Timothy Akers and Wilma E. (Marlin) Akers. He moved with his family to the Bartlesville area at the age of five and attended country schools and Bartlesville schools. He entered the U.S. Army in August 1948 at the age of 17 and served in the Korean Conflict until receiving his Honorable Discharge in July of 1951. Following his discharge, he returned to Bartlesville and then moved to Tulsa where he was employed with his sister and brother-in-law,

June and Leo Waller at their Lot-A-Burger in Tulsa. He was married to JoAnn Hefner at the Springdale Baptist Church in Tulsa on July 20, 1952. They made their home in Tulsa until moving to Bartlesville September of 1958 and have made their home here since that time. On October 1, 1958 they opened the Lot-A-Burger in Bartlesville which has been in continuous operation. Mr. Akers' passion was flying and he held his private pilot's license, commercial pilot's license, was a licensed flight instructor and also had flown as a charter pilot. He was an active member of the First Baptist Church since 1973 where he had served as a Deacon, Sunday School teacher and had gone on 17 mission trips to Nicaragua. He was also a member of the American Legion, the Exchange Club and the Oldies and Goodies Car Club and restored and rebuilt Model A's. He also loved to hunt, fish and golf. He was very close with his brothers and sisters and people from all walks of life and felt that everyone was unique.

Mr. Akers is survived by his wife, JoAnn Akers of Bartlesville, his three children, Janet B. Radebaugh and husband, Mendell of Bartlesville, Judy K. Gray and husband Gary of Havana, Kansas and Johnny Paul Akers and wife, Kelli of Bartlesville, two brothers, Jack D. “ My sympathies to the family in the home-going of Johnny. I am glad to have gotten to know Mr. Akers through church and other interactions. He loved God and my family and friends. I will treasure my last visit with him in the downtown car show three weeks ago. I am richer from knowing you, and your family. We are see each other again in Heaven.

“ We are grieving that we won't be with Johnny in this life again, but we are so grateful that his suffering is over and he is with his Lord and Savior. Johnny made it fun to hand out bulletins and take up the offering at church. He definitely had the gift of service. We shall surely miss him. We love all of you and are lifting you to the Lord, Irene and Hulon Simmons
