“ Josh,

We have and will always Love you deeply. There were many times that you felt more like one of our family. You grew up with Rachelle and Brandon and we have very good memories of those times.

To my Sis, Diana,

I hurt inside so badly for you and just can't imagine what your pain feels like. If I could I would take it all from you so that you wouldn't have to live with it. Please know that you mean the world to me and I Love you!

You will be in our prayers!

Josh, we will miss you and will be glad when we get to see you again in Heaven!

*Love,
Uncle Brian & Aunt Troy Lynn*

“ "Love is stronger than death even though it can't stop death from happening, but no matter how hard death tries it can't separate people from love. It can't take away our memories either. In the end, love is stronger than death." ~ Anon.

Josh, you were and always will be a son of my heart. The essence of your being, smile, laughter, dedication and professionalism, hugs, teasing, and some great memories of Eureka Springs trips bring comfort in your absence now. Paul and I were blessed by your presence in our family. You positively touched so many lives. Now, for you, may we all continue paying it forward.

Our prayers and love are with you, Di and family, and friends.

“ Our hearts are sadden more than any words can express. Our emotions are torn deeper than anyone would know. Our heartfelt condolences goes out to all who knew and loved Josh. May the love of those around you help you through the days ahead. Hold tight to memories for comfort, lean on your friends for strength, and always remember how much you are loved, and may you take comfort in knowing an angel is watching over you.— Josh you always called me “Uncle” and I am proud for that, when you lived with us, Lee, Susie, Grandma Evelyn (which you liked to call her), Steven and me we were All Family and we always will be family. The memories we all shared are so very precious and will live with us forever until we all meet again. You rest now, take care of Rosie and we will see you when the time is right.
