

Juanita "Irene" Geymann

October 3, 1920 - December 4, 2014

Mrs. Juanita "Irene" Geymann

Mrs. Juanita "Irene" Geymann, 94, of Bartlesville, died at 6:45 P.M. on Thursday, December 4, 2014 at the Heritage Villa Nursing Center.

Funeral services will be held at 10 A.M. on Tuesday in the Stumpff Funeral Home Chapel with Pastor Wendell Abbott of the First Church of God in Nowata officiating. Interment will be in the Nowata Memorial Park Cemetery directed by the Stumpff Funeral Home & Crematory.

Irene Morris was born at Delaware, Oklahoma on October 3, 1920 to John Buford Morris and Myrtle Ann (Jenkins) Morris. She grew up in the Delaware area and graduated from Delaware High School in 1938. She moved to California to make her home and became involved in the fabric and dress department of a department store there. She was later a business manager for a construction company. Mrs. Geymann returned to Oklahoma to make her home in Bartlesville in 1987. She was married to Paul Eugene Geymann on June 29, 1996 in Bartlesville and they have made their home in Bartlesville since that time. She was a member of the East Cross United Methodist Church, the Order of Eastern Star, White Shrine and Order of Amaranth. She had served as Worthy Matron. She had also been active in square dancing and bowling.

Irene was a wonderful person who was loving to everyone she met. She never had a bad thing to say about anyone. She was an inspiration to all who knew her. She is waiting for us in Heaven now.

Mrs. Geymann is survived by her husband, Paul E. Geymann of Bartlesville, a stepdaughter, Kelley Falk and her husband Dr. Richard Falk of Edmond, a step son, Greg E. Geymann of Norman, Okla., four sisters, Marie Williams and Edna Wood both of Nowata, Ida Belle Harris of Bartlesville and Delores Griggs of Seminole and numerous nieces and nephews.
