“ Judy was always the sweetest person- we loved seeing her at the store and she was so kind to Maggie when she was a little girl and we lived next to the store-Maggie would go to shop at the store with a list and money (trying to be a big helper) and Judy would make sure she got what she needed and watch to see if she got headed the right direction home (of course, I was out front watching as well). Maggie always liked both Danny and Judy! My son Bo loved Judy as well, he always enjoyed seeing her at the store, even as a grown adult. Many great memories of Judy!! Dana Ross

“ As I was out of town Wednesday, Judy came to my mind & now I understand the reason. I will definitely miss her smile, kindness, & heartfelt conversations. I'm so thankful for our fun memories, the Patriotic singing, encouragement, & the wonderful memories she shared about my parents - mainly my momma. Soar with the eagles sweet friend!! I'll miss your occasional hug when I had the chance to stop in at the store. I definitely understand this heartache & I'll be praying for your family. ❤️🙏
