“ I knew Judy as a kid back in the late 40s. I use to go to her family,s home to play mostly on Sunday after church services. She her sister Renee. and brother David. Judy was fun, I loved her laugh. Last time I saw Judy was some years ago when visiting Bartlesville friends. We met with Renee at the Steak house, can't remember the name of it, but we enjoyed. Recalling our growing up years. Judy will always be remembered!! Prayers of comfort for the family. I look forward to the Day when we meet again in our Heavenly Home! ❤️

*Judy was my Friend as was David and Renee. I have great memories of the many times I stayed in their home. Attended Bible school with David and alway as a little kid had a crush on Renee. Judy was my Buddy, always a friend no matter the years. I recall Sister Vanley's long hair she would let me comb once and a while. Their Dad John was a fine man and I recall was a Deacon in First Assembly in Bartlesville. Without a doubt the family I was closest to in my childhood. Love you all and pray comfort during this time of sorrow. Love you all.
