“ Dear mom, it has been over a year since everything has happened and for some reason...nothing is getting better. Is this how you felt when papa passed away? What am i supposed to do with myself or my future now that this happened. Im so beyond lost and i need your guidance and reassurance that everything will be ok. I wish i could talk too you because it just seems nobody else would understand...i sure hope something changes quickly..i really need it too...in more ways then one. i love you so very much.
