“ Joe and I have been friends most all my life. I will miss visiting with him and sharing in his stories of his family and friends. I had purchased his 1968 Dodge pickup from him in 2003. He sure was proud to see it up and running again. It has been a privilege to know Joe and be friends with a God loving person. It is said that many people that pass will be forgotten quickly. You, my friend will not. Till we meet again....

“ Joe was a great man, he came into my life through church. One of the most Godly men I knew. He was there to help me after I lost my dad, he became my bonus dad. I will always cherish the memories I have with him. He loved his wife and missed her like crazy, I know he was ready to see her again. He talked about growing up and how special his family was to him. I know he was ready to go to his Heavenly Home. We all will miss him and I was blessed to be his adopted daughter. Until we meet again ☐

“Mr. Kemper "Joe" Javine was my best friend. He was the father I never had. He was the kindest man I knew. Joe loved God. He loved his family and talked about them often. He was sincere. He was a true man of integrity. I spent a lot of time with Joe. I visited him often. "Come in...if your nose is clean"—was one of his favorite sayings. Hearing him say that after he would answer the front door, will always ring in my ear. He never got tired of me. A phone call from him would always brighten my day...or night. Yes, he could be a night owl!

I learned a lot about Joe, especially during the writing of his biography. I went nearly everywhere with him. We laughed together. We cried together. We went through many trials together, yet he stood by my side. I have made a lot of mistakes in my life, yet he never judged me. He corrected me when I needed it—being honest enough to tell me when I was wrong. I loved him for that. Words cannot explain the bond we had. I miss him dearly.

Joe, you were, and always will be my best friend. I hope to see you again one day. Hopefully I can be your neighbor in Heaven as I once was on Earth. You were to me what Lucas McCain was to Mark. I will always love you, Pa!
