“ I have very fond memories of Kevin dating back to elementary school through HS. Our birthdays were two days apart. In 1976 we were roommates and Kevin got me a job with him as a roustabout in the oil field with The Link Oil Company where Kevin remained. We took our two dogs to work with us every day. Kevin was also a great cook. He was truly a gentle giant, quite and never wanting the spotlight. I wish we had stayed close over the years. I've thought of him often over the years. R.I.P my friend.
