

Kristina Marie Thomas

September 10, 1985 - September 8, 2021

Kristina Marie Thomas passed away peacefully at St. Johns Hospital. Her sunrise was September 10, 1985. She grew up in Lawrence, Kansas until moving to Bartlesville, Oklahoma in 1991 with her mother and two brothers. Kristina is part of a loving family. Kristina has four brothers: Alan Patterson, John Thomas, Ryan Jones and Trey Jones, and one stepsister Takisha Clark. Kristina is preceded in death by her father Tommy Jones and her brothers Ryan Jones.

She is survived by her mother Cynthia Thomas, her grandmother Audrey Wallace, her brothers Alan, John, and Trey, and her sister Kisha, her two children Eniyah Rosemarie Moore (15 years), and Bresaya Marie Rogers (5 years), her two nieces, Satine and Kalise Thomas, and one nephew, Stephon Lemere.

Kristina graduated in 2004 with honors from Bartlesville High School. She went to Community Care and graduated as a Pharmacy Technician. She also attended Roger State University where she studied Pre-Nursing. She went on to become a CNA at St. Johns hospital before she transferred to a Material Handler position at RML in Tulsa where she worked since 2013.

Kristina had a vibrant aura and was very spiritual. She had a beautiful personality and a contagious laugh. She was a very caring and charitable individual. She loved and enjoyed her family, friends, and her job.

In her spare time, Kristina would visit PetSmart and loved watching the animals. She loved to go places and travel. She was a dedicated mother, sister, and aunt. She was always willing to do what she could to help others. She was one of a kind. Her sunset was September 8, 2021.
