I am so sorry for your loss. I know he is in a better place and reunited with Velma again. Which makes me think of all the memories I have of them both. So much I learned about fishing and gardening has been from KY. Countless hours spent on a lake or heated dock with them, I wish I could remember all of his stories now. I just appreciate the time I spent with them and the fact I was always treated like family even though I was an in-law. And then a few years ago when I saw KY he still hugged me and treated me the same as though nothing had changed.

K. Y. You will be missed by those of us on this earth that loved you, but I know that up in Heaven right now, they are having one heck of a welcome home fish fry being held in your honor. My love and prayers to all your family.
