“ Kyle was the best blond headed toddler you could ever imagine. He loved to play baseball. So we would play and not thinking I always helped him bat left handed since I'm a lefty. I understand he stayed a lefty when batting. Kyle will always have a special place in my heart. He will definitely be missed.

“ I remember when Kyle's graduating class wanted to have their senior campout on the lawn of the school. He and Josh Johnson had gotten permission from Mr. Moreland but they needed a teacher chaperone. They asked (more like begged) me if I would chaperone them. I said sure but with the stipulation that part of the night had to be devoted to study for their finals the next day. Parents quickly put together a great cookout for us at the lake, they we came back to school. They played water balloon football, then studied. Then we walked down to Ms. Coleman's to serenade her (we had to go twice). We went back to school and Brian Howard was there asking if he could join even though he missed the curfew. I said ok and he asked to go home to change as he'd just gotten off work. When he came back he had a hide-a-bed sofa that his girlfriend's mom had put on the front porch to be hauled away. So, we unfolded it and all but about 2 or 3 of the 15 or so kids that were there all piled on the hid-a-bed. We sat there and talked all night. We got the sleepers up and some of us went to the Truck Stop for breakfast. I think that class is the only one that has ever done that. It was so much fun. I was so glad I said yes. RIP, Kyle. We'll all see you one day again.

“ What a great guy, he will be so dearly missed. I remember when Karen and Randy moved to Copan and we became great friends. They were new parents of Kyle, and they were really stressed out and gave me a call and I spent a few days off and on helping them getting adjusted to that great little baby. It was a hard adjustment for them all but became great parents to Kyle and little sister Kelly. We will miss him so much and God bless all of the family.

Kyle was great friends with my son (Clifton) and nephew (Josh). I don't think there was a weekend missed that they weren't sitting on my front porch laughing and having a great time, and, Kyle was usually the one that was making them all laugh. Kyle you are so loved by everyone that you touch. Through the school years and then to college with the boys you have always been a blessing and wonderful friend. You grew up and became a fine man. Married a beautiful woman. Clifton was your Best Man and was honored to be there. You became a daddy to two precious kids. I got to know you even better when you were working security at the Courthouse. We spoke often and I remember the day of the adoption. You always had a big smile on your face but the day you told me you and Kristin were going to become 4, it was 10 times bigger. Fly high Kyle. We lost you too early. And, THANK YOU VERY MUCH for your devotion to our guys in Blue. You make me proud I live in this community!!!
