

Larry Joe Clark

April 23, 1943 - October 9, 2012

Larry Clark 4/23/43-10/9/2012

Larry Joe Clark passed from this life to heaven Oct. 9, 2012 at his home in rural South Coffeyville, OK.

Larry was born in Kellyville, OK. April 23, 1943 to Joe H. Clark and Christine Bowers Clark. He spent much of his early childhood with his grandparents, Clifford & Bertha Bowers, in Kellyville, OK. After moving to Sapulpa, OK, he attended school there, graduating in 1962. While attending Coffeyville Junior College, Larry met Patty Swift and they got married in January 1965. Their son Mark (Randy) Clark was born in 1971 while living in the Tulsa, OK. Area. They returned to live in Coffeyville in 1977 to work with his father-in-law, Howard Swift. For the past 24 years Larry and Patty have owned and operated Muffler City. After closing the muffler shop portion of the business in January, Larry loved operating their used furniture & antique shop, Old Yellow Front, at the same location.

Larry was a gentle giant who loved Jesus, his family, especially his granddaughters and great granddaughter.

Larry was preceded in death by his father Joe Clark. He is survived by his parents Harold & Christine Bingham of Sapulpa, OK., brothers Robert Clark of Broken Arrow, Ok., Steve & Carolyn Clark of Granbury, TX., his wife Patty of the home, son Randy & Shaneena Clark, 2 granddaughters, Shonda & Makayla Clark and one of his greatest joys, great granddaughter, Rayleigh (June Bug) Clark all of South Coffeyville, OK.

Cremation has taken place, Celebration of Life services are planned for 2:00 pm, Tuesday Oct. 16th at First Assembly of God in Coffeyville, Pastor Randy DePreist officiating.

“ My love to the family. I went to school with Larry in Sapulpa and played football with him. I have a bad knee to remember Larry by :).

We knew Joe for a very long time also. Sincerely, Terry
