“ Larry trained me when I first came to ConocoPhillips in 2006 and he was always one of my biggest supporters as I grew my career there. He eventually worked for me and his commitment, dedication and kindness never faltered. He was such a joy to work with and everyone who worked with him had so much respect for him. He made it fun and his smile made everyone feel good. My deepest sympathy to his family. He is a bright light that will be sorely missed.
