“ I will always remember playing on her farm in Wann. The peacocks and cows. Swimming in that dirty pond and OMG I got a leech! I was freaking out!

During one of our family Christmas parties she drew my name. She made me one of the best gifts I ever received as a child. She got me a Barbie whose hair changed from black to blonde BUT she made so many outfits for her it was fantastic. I had that Barbie and those handmade outfits for many years! I will always cherish that. The time she spent- priceless. She always had a big smile and lots of love. Fly high aunt Laura! I love you!
