“ *Dear Family,
I regret that I was out of touch with Sue for several years. It is another reminder that we should not take our tomorrows for granted. I am one of many people who knew Sue and Charley through our mutual love of horses. We rode many a trail together. I was blessed to know such a gentle and caring person as Sue. We shared a lot of laughter and a few tears. Sue would drive to Muskogee and I would meet her there, to lunch with our more senior friend, Buster Brandstetter, to cheer him after the loss of his wife, Carol. How like Sue to make the effort to give comfort and lift another's spirits. I can't think of her without smiling. I am sorry that I can't aattend the service but I have a temporary vision issue right now, and can't make the drive. Know that I am with all of you in remembering Sue.*
