Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in me. In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going there to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you may be where I am. You know the way to the place where I am going.

“ Mr. Noll was one of the sweetest patients I ever had the pleasure of caring for. He and his dear wife, Jackie, were like parents to me, calling every Monday morning at 8 am to report on how Mr. Noll was feeling and to discuss other important matters such as grandchildren. I love them both dearly and will cherish their friendship forever. Rest in peace, Leo. I will see you in heaven.

“ Jackie & Leo were our neighbors when we lived on Rockdale Road. The first time I went into their home, Leo had calculus books open on the table and was doing problems just for fun the way you might do sudoku or a crossword. You didn't have to talk to him long to find out This was a brilliant guy, but also very loving And funny and fun loving. he shared his vast knowledge and his vast library with me and my family. Most of all, though he reflected the joy of the Lord every time I was ever around him. as a teacher,I looked to Dr. Leo as a mentor and a great example of a lifelong learner. I like to imagine a heavenly reunion where Leo greets me with his big smile and lots of new jokes. 🙏

“ I had the pleasure of learning from Dr. Noll early on in my degree program at RSU. He was always so kind, cheerful, and very helpful to me and the other students. I can still hear Dr. Noll saying “Shell Hotel” again and again whenever I think of anything chemistry related. Rest in peace, sir!

Dr Leo was one of a kind. His personal library was extensive and he always had a recommendation that fit my personal interests. He took time to know people well beyond a superficial level. I had the privilege of seeing him often during the last few months of his life. You always felt better leaving than you did coming in. I will miss him greatly and look forward to joining him someday. Blessings to the family.
