May 10, 1963 - December 4, 2019

Lida "Lu" Louise Stanton, 56, of Bartlesville, Oklahoma, died Wednesday, December 4, 2019.

She enjoyed swimming, boating, book club, hiking, camping, cooking, reading, and collecting Southwest Native American Art. She was a member of the Tulsa Literacy Society, where she taught people to read. She loved her yearly Thanksgiving trips to Buffalo River, Arkansas, where she prepared the whole meal. Lu and Jim started an annual hiking and camping trip to the Grand Canyon at the age of 30 for 18 consecutive years. She enjoyed helicopter rides over the Grand Canyon and trips to Minnesota with cousins George and Beth where they ice fished and snowmobiled.

“ Lu and I were co-workers in the accounting department of World Travel Service for at least 15 years. She made me laugh every day. She had my back and I had hers. Always willing to help and a truly real person. Lost touch in the last few years and this news of her passing is shocking to me. RIP LU !

I only saw Lu when I went to the office as I was an outside agent. However, she was always kind and very interesting to visit with, especially about her trips to Grand Canyon. I'm sure she will be missed by many. Grace Weber

“ I knew Lu these 24 years plus, she was a beautiful person inside and out. Her sense of humor , she could always make me laugh, . She was generous with everyone , her love, support, or a good DRINK! I still have the souvenir that she and Jim brought me from Mexico, even after being in a EARTH QUAKE, Lupe still thought about me. All my love to you Jim, and to Mrs. May.

Carmen had once told me that when Jim and Lu visited her at the lake house they slept in one twin bed rather than sleep apart. Now that's true love. 😊 I know they were soulmates, and my heart goes out to Jim, as well as the rest of the family.
