Paid Obituary Stumpff Funeral Home & Crematory

Mrs. Linda Jean Stringer

Linda Jean Stringer was born September 27, 1948 in Tulsa, Oklahoma to Herman A. Lassley and Esther Imagegne Lassley. She is survived by her husband Timothy James Stringer; her four children Angela Louise Masters, Edward Bryan Stuck, David Aaron Stuck, and Lesley Ann Stringer; her sister Carolyn Faye Landis; and her grandchildren James Dean Flint III, Timothy Edward Flint, Sean Michael Flint, and Alyssa Renee Tatum-Stuck. She was preceded in death by her parents, her sister DeAnn Jane Wilson, and her first husband Dennis Edward Stuck.

The most important job title Linda ever had was "Mama." She always said that her greatest accomplishment in life was her children. They are how she most wanted to be remembered.

Plans for a private Celebration of Life for close friends and family are pending.

“ I went to school at Skiatook with Linda. She was a year younger than me, and I was a classmate of her sister DeAnn. After I graduated, I never saw Linda again, but I will always have fond memories of her in my heart. She was a very sweet person in school. My heart breaks for the sadness her family is going through. May God give you comfort and peace during this difficult time.
