Ruth Porter Obituary

Lora Ruth Porter, aged 91, passed away at home on April 12, 2024 in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma.

Mrs. Porter was born on April 19, 1932 in Belcherville, Texas to Henry and Ruthie (Greene) Norvell. She graduated from Borger High School in Borger, Texas. After marrying Grady Porter on March 17, 1953, they moved to Bartlesville, OK where they lived for the next 65 years.

Ruth was a devoted wife and mother. She was a long-time active member of the Bartlesville First Church of the Nazarene. Over the years, she was also a member of the Bartlesville Pilot Club and served as the Oklahoma state president for the United Daughters of the Confederacy.

Ruth was preceded in death by her husband Grady, her parents Henry and Ruthie, her sisters Lera, Lucy and Era May and her brothers Buddy, Bill, Tom, Willis and J.W.

She is survived by her daughters Joyce and Sandy, granddaughters Sarah and Amy, grandson-in-law Drew, great-granddaughter April and great-grandson Owen.

The family thanks Comfort Keepers and St. Francis Hospice for their compassionate care of the past two and a half years.

Memorial services are under the direction of Stumpff Funeral Home and Crematory, Bartlesville, OK and will be held Saturday April 20, 2024 at 11:00 a.m. Interment will follow at Memorial Park Cemetery in Bartlesville, Oklahoma.
