

Lori Anne Smith

October 15, 1955 - June 7, 2023

Lori Anne Smith passed away, Wednesday, June 7th, surrounded by family, her incredible staff of care givers and the hearts of many, at Sequoyah Point Living Center in Owasso, OK.

Lori was born October 15th, 1955, to Jim B. Smith and Barbara (Webber) Smith in Lawton, Ok. Throughout Lori's adult life, she lived in Freedom, Waynoka, Alva, Tulsa and finally settling in Bartlesville for many years. Before her declining health prevented her ability, she worked in the medical field and later secretarial work.

Lori was a member of the Adams Blvd Church of Christ and loved her Church Family deeply. She loved Jesus with everything she had and delighted in sharing the grace she had found in Him her whole life. As her health had become so difficult, and her pain increasing over many of the last years, she continued to share her love of Jesus. She had a very childlike innocence and her faith was precious. Most who've known her refer to their lives as "blessed" just by her presence. Lori is at peace, in the Lord's lap.

Lori is proceeded in death by her Dad, Jim B. Smith, Grandparents Alton and Curtis Smith and Walter and Eva Webber and her Beloved feline fur babies, Casey, Missy, Bentley and Charlie.

Lori is survived by her Mom, Barbara Smith, Alva, Ok, brother and family David and Marsha Smith, nieces, Jenna and Jared Keith and Elaina Smith, all of OKC, OK, sister Becky Hill, niece Emily and Dylan Streeter, great nieces Brynlee and Saige Streeter, great nephew Maddox Streeter, all of Shawnee, OK, bonus great-nephew Logan Record, Garland, TX, brother-in-law Mark Hill of Chandler, other family and many, many lifelong Friends.

Lori will be laid to rest with her dad and eventually her Mom in Lawton, OK.

Memorials can be made to:
Adams Blvd. Church of Christ
3700 SE Adams Blvd.
Bartlesville, OK 74006

“ Lori was so good to keep up with birthdays over the years! I got a card from her every year as long as she was able to do it. Eventually she would text happy birthday and sometimes we talked on the phone. Lori was a ray of sunshine and a blessing to anyone around her! I'm thankful she is released from her earthly suffering and is now with the love of her life - Jesus! I know she will greet me in heaven someday. ❤️
