

Louella Jane "Janie" Nottingham

August 12, 1949 - November 5, 2024

Louella Jane "Janie" Nottingham, 75, of Bartlesville, OK entered into Glory on November 5th, 2024. Janie was born on August 12th, 1949, in Bartlesville OK to Robert and Dorothy Buttram. She attended school at West High School in Wichita, Kansas. She then went on to marry the love of her life, Richard on August 20th, 1967. They shared fifty beautiful years together and a wonderful daughter, Cytina. Janie was employed with Walmart for several years before moving on to become a Case Manager with home health where she retired in 2010.

Throughout the years, her and Richard served in several different ministry capacities: youth pastors, Sunday school teachers and worship teams. She traveled for over fifteen years in ministry as a part of women's conference's, speaking, and pouring into the lives of women across the country making many lifelong friends. She was currently a member of Happy Hill Church where she enjoyed worshipping with her family.

Janie loved playing softball in her earlier days, spending time at the lake with her family, watching her grandkids grow, having slumber parties with her sisters and we can't forget shopping, she loved her shopping! Janie was funny when she wasn't trying to be loving and feisty which matched her red hair.

Janie is survived by her daughter, Cytina Taylor and husband Steve, granddaughter Kelsey Tinsley and husband Zach, grandson Kaleb Taylor and wife Addy and great-grandson Lincoln Tinsley; all of Bartlesville, OK. She is also survived by her sister Darlene and husband Art, brother Wayne and wife Beverly, sister Ginger and sister Kathy as well as several nieces and nephews.

Janie was preceded in death by her loving husband Richard, her beloved parents, her twin brother Butch and his son Kendall.
