

Loy B. Boling

January 9, 1912 - May 26, 2012

LOY B. (PAINTER) BOLING

Loy Betty (Painter) Boling, 100, died Saturday May 26, 2012 in Dewey.

Graveside services will be held at 2:00 PM Friday June 1, 2012 at the Mountain Vale Memorial Park Cemetery in Canon City, Colorado, directed by the Stumpff Funeral Home & Crematory of Bartlesville, Oklahoma. The family will receive friends Wednesday from 6:00 PM to 8:00 PM in the Stumpff Funeral Home.

Loy spent her childhood years in the Cookson Hills, Weber's Falls and Black Gum Mountain area. As an adult she lived in the Springfield and Canon City, Colorado areas and in the Antlers and Dewey, Oklahoma areas.

Loy was a woman who loved deeply. She loved her God; her siblings, her husbands, her son and daughter, her grandchildren, great grandchildren, great great grandchildren, and her extended family and friends. She also had a passion for the simple beauty of nature: the forests, mountains, high plains, and rivers and streams of cool clear water. Loy also enjoyed the simple pleasures of daily life, especially sharing a cup of coffee and a good piece of pie with whoever was available at the time.

Loy was a real cowgirl who also loved the bling of her rhinestones. At 97 years of age she was still wearing her cowboy boots, Wranglers and rhinestone shirts every day. She was also a nurse, a carpenter, a gardener, a seamstress, a dancer, and an explorer. One of her favorite activities was traveling and visiting new locations in her camper. She appreciated all of God's creatures but she was especially drawn to the beauty of horses, cardinals, and mockingbirds. Loy was a woman of great faith, busy hands, and a satisfied mind.

Survivors include; her son Lee Painter of Antlers, Oklahoma; 5 grandchildren Patti Barnes of Bartlesville, Oklahoma, Linda Banks of Dewey, Jerry Dowell of Oklahoma City, Steven Painter of Antlers, Oklahoma and Kimberly Cooper of Springfield, Colorado; 13 great grandchildren and 10 great great grandchildren. Loy was preceded in death by her parents Thomas J. and Minny (Hamilton) Brown, five husbands; one daughter Rozell Dowell; two grandsons Steven Kent Dowell and Mike Painter; one great granddaughter, Heather Dowell; one great great grandson Ryan Barnes and eight brothers and sisters.

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. Please know that God will comfort and sustain you. Psalms 34:18 says that He is near to those broken at heart and saves those crushed in spirit. He truly knows the pain you feel. He assures us at John 5:28 that a time will soon come when we will welcome back to our arms those we have lost. Know that time is very near. Allow God to comfort your soul until that day arrives. Please keep His promises close to your heart. I offer my deepest sympathies to your entire family.

“ What a beautiful lady! I loved to visit her when she felt like dressing up in her jeans and fancy shirts. I was always amazed at her ability to wear those heels. I always felt good after being with her. With love, Charlotte
