

Loyd Chesser

May 8, 1930 - July 21, 2016

Loyd Chesser, 86, retired restaurateur, passed away at 2:25 pm on Thursday, July 21, 2016 in Bartlesville, OK.

Loyd was born May 8, 1930 in Olustee, Oklahoma to parents William “Cap” Chesser and Julia (Ince) Chesser. On May 8, 1954 Loyd married Marguerite Marie McEuin in Ponca City, OK. The couple moved to Bartlesville in 1956. In 1966 they purchased Taco Hut restaurant. They also owned and operated Chesser’s Fried Chicken and the Flame Restaurant. They had a total of seven Taco Hut’s, eventually changing the name to Taco Village. Loyd was active in the business until 2012. Loyd loved people. He was a story teller, and his greatest joy was to make someone smile or laugh.

Loyd is survived by his children Loyd D. Chesser and wife Jaque of Houston, Texas. Jeff L. Chesser and wife Janel of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma, Rick N. Chesser and wife Vickie of Kansas, Oklahoma and Brenda Jones and husband Phillip of Bartlesville, Oklahoma; Grandchildren Crystal, Doug, Kevin, Rhianna, Rowdy, and Ashley; Great grandchildren, Zachary, Kasey, Jaydon, Lillie and Noah; one brother Leroy Chesser and wife Betty of Mustang, Oklahoma; girlfriend Shirley Dyer.

The Chesser family will receive guest 5 pm – 7 pm, Monday, July 25, 2016 at the Stumpff Funeral Home.

Funeral Services will be held 10 am Tuesday, July 26, 2016 at Stumpff Funeral Home Chapel with internment to follow at Memorial Park Cemetery in Bartlesville, Oklahoma.

“ *I knew Loyd from an early age as my Mother cared for their children in our home for many years. Their children were like my brothers and sister. I admired him for his many accomplishments. He had the best recipes for mexican food ever created. The Taco Village is deeply missed by our family. My deepest condolences for his family. May they know my thoughts and prayers are with them during this time, and thereafter. <3
