Dear Luann

You were a good friend to us and made us laugh. I had a lot of fun pranking you. If I could have picked a sister you would have been on the short list. I know you are thanking God for everything and having a lot of fun visiting with all your friends and family who have already made the journey. When you get time put out two chairs for us. Turn around twice and we'll be there. Love Luke and Cheryl.

LuAnn you were a good friend! I will miss you, but I'm glad you are with your momma and grandma. Mom and I enjoyed the day we took you to see the wild horses and then to Osage Park for a picnic. I'll always remember your laugh, and how you screamed so loud in the stockroom when you saw that snake or a mouse. When I put a bug in your desk! Love you sister until we meet again! ❤️

From possibly picking up a huge orange cone to chasing a couple of cowboys down 75 we had some great adventures. To-go margaritas at Buffalo Wild Wings were a thing and you dancing on a table in Lawrence, Kansas. We had some great times and always said that we never hurt anybody. Look down on your sweet granddaughter and let her know you are up there watching over her.
