“ Sweet boy, your mama sure loved you. She radiated when she talked about you. You have blessed so many lives and made each of us a be a better person after knowing your story and the fight you fought. What an angel you have always been... and now, I know you are watching over your family as your body has been set free of pain and you are whole again.

“ Lucas you were an amazing little boy! Your grammy was especially proud of you! My heart breaks with your family's. Even though we know you're perfect and whole with Jesus, it's hard here on earth for us. Your memory will always be in our hearts.
