“ Jeanne was a dear, sweet lady! She touched my life through her daughter, Cyndy, my best friend in junior high. She played the violin at our wedding in 1976! My visits with her always uplifted me in her sense of humor, love of the Lord, and her personality. She has been missed by me over the years and will be more now...until I see her again!

“ I have been privileged to know Jeanne, having lived in the same complex for ten years. She has been a precious friend and prayer partner--always upbeat and grateful for every day. I never saw her without a smile. She loved her family so much and they were often included in our prayers.

Every now and then God gives us "treasures in earthen vessels" (2 Cor. 4:7).

"Jeannie", as I called her, was certainly one of those. I will miss her so much!

May God comfort each of you through this difficult time.
