

Maggie Grace Fitch

February 23, 1930 - January 14, 2023

Maggie Grace was born February 23, 1930, to Fred and Ina (Ryburn) Smith. She was the fifth of six children. Maggie graduated with a class of six from Meridian High School in 1948.

Preceding Maggie in death was her first husband LeeRoy Graham, her husband Robert Fitch, siblings, Mae (Amon) Hunt, Harold (Ruth) Smith, Ralph (Marianne) Smith, Dennis (Beth) Smith, and Fred (Norma) Smith. Maggie was also preceded in death by her cherished cockatiel, Charlie.

Maggie is survived by her children, Rick Ramage, Ron (Carolyn) Graham, and Lorri Hanna; step-daughters, Barbara (George) Ketchum and Kay Carr; eight grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren; along with several very special nieces and nephews.

Maggie worked in Quality Control at Coca Cola for eleven years then worked at Jane Phillips Hospital until her retirement in 1992. Following retirement, Maggie volunteered at Jane Phillips Hospital's gift shop for many years.

Maggie started taking aquacize classes at the YMCA in 1992 and became the leader of her class in 2001. Maggie had a special place in her heart for the ladies and gentlemen who participated in the classes with her. Maggie was a member of Town and Country Christian Church in Bartlesville and attended the Sunday School class taught by her dear friend Al Wolfe.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Town and Country Christian Church.

“ Marge was always special. When Lorri and I became best friends in grade school, I started calling her MOM 2 and that's what I always think of her as.

She came to my mind a few days ago and now I know why. She's with Jesus and all loved ones in heaven now.

From band practice in the garage, to taking me to church with Lorri and her, and putting up with me always tagging along to Aunt Mae's. These are good memories that I carry with me.

To her family, I send prayers of comfort and peace for you all. Love Chris, daughter 2.

“ I love you more than words can say. I know you are happy and love seeing everyone who went before you. You will always hold a special place in my heart. Your smile was infectious. Thank you for always being there for me and loving me. ~ Mickey Jo
