

Marjorie "Marge" Ann Minor

March 6, 1934 - October 22, 2022

Marjorie Minor was born in Bartlesville on March 6, 1934, to Lewis M. Thomas and Thelma L. Hainline. Marjorie attended Bartlesville schools and graduated there. She then married Jimmie D. Minor on April 4, 1952, and they have been married for 70 years! Marjorie traveled with Jimmie throughout his military career until he retired in 1970. She then began working at Jane Phillips Hospital in Bartlesville and a career at the Rainbo Bakery. She was a kind and generous woman; she helped with a food pantry in 1994 for 20 years. She then retired in 2014. She loved to go camping and being a gate attendant at the Corp Eng. She loved to go to church, and especially loved dad with all her heart.

Marjorie was preceded in death by both of her parents, Lewis Thomas and Thelma Hainline, her son Kevin Lee, her daughter Alichia Ann, her grandson Jared M. Minor, her sister Mary Wilhaime, and her brother Irvin Lee Hobson. She is survived by her stepson Darrell Minor, her daughter Brenda L. Paper and husband Jeff, her son Michael Minor and wife Lisa, Kelsi Swaim (Landon), Landon Minor (Amanda), Michelle Bridges (Kevin), Candie Paper (Rigo), Tiffany Foreman (Marshall), 6 grandkids, 12 great-grandkids, and 3 great-great grandkids.

“ Marge was a sweetheart! I used to see her and Jim at auctions and then again at church. She was always sure to visit with me and ask about my family. She will be greatly missed on earth but I know she is joyfully welcomed into heaven!
