I met marsha when I ordered two tshirts from her. When I went to pick them up we just couldn't stop talking to each other. I thought of her as a very special friend. I will miss her greatly. My heart goes out to her family.

“ Marsha was like a sister growing up. She was the only reason my name was ever put on the board in elementary school; the conversation couldn't wait until recess. We spoke almost nightly as soon as we were old enough to use a phone. In fact, 30+ years later I still remember that phone number. We frequently would spend the night at one of our houses. She shared her goats (still remember the first time she let me milk one) and horses with me. I remember how excited she was when Tom Petty sang about the girl who loved horses. She was sure it was about her. I regret that we lost touch, and she was always on my mind every year on March 21. I'm naturally quiet, so making friends was hard. There is no doubt in my mind that I would be a different person today if I hadn't spent so much time with her growing up. I'm truly saddened by your loss. I have no doubt that adult Marsha was as beautiful a person as child Marsha. Many thoughts and prayers to your family.
