“ Grandma, you will be deeply missed and your memory will carry on. I was blessed to have you as my grandmother. My fondest memory was staying the night with you as a child. You would let me sleep in bed with you. The next morning you would always make me hot chocolate and toast with butter and jelly. You were such a loving and caring grandmother. I am so sad you are gone but I know you are at peace and with your loved ones in Heaven. I am sure you are having an amazing celebration. I will never forget your loving and caring ways. I will cherish all the memories we have together. I will keep your memory alive by telling my children stories about you. Rest in Peace, Grandma.
