“ My very favorite cousin. We shared the same birth date, October 10. I use to tell her I asked for bicycle, but got her instead. From that time forward, no matter where I was, or where she was we kept in touch. I love her and feel bad that she is gone from this earth, but know we will meet again. Also know that she is happy now because she is with her Lord.. Goodbye my dear friend, save a chair for me.

Mary Ann was truly an angel GOD put on this earth for the lives she touched. She was the best hearted person you will ever meet. I will forever be grateful to have known her and call her my friend. Although Janie won't understand I will try to explain it to her and she will forever have your picture on her headboard of her bed. We tried to call but you were unable to talk to her but I know now you can talk to her in her dreams and help me watch over her. I am so thankful to GOD for giving us you and I pray for comfort for your loved ones as I know you are no longer in pain and you wouldn't want them feeling the pain they are going through. GOD bless you Mary Ann for being the person you were. We love you and will miss you forever.
