“ Kim, Jeff and Mike,

I am so sorry for your loss. There aren't words that can take away your pain, but the precious memories will help you today and the days to come.

I loved your mom and her spunk. Couple of memories that I will cherish....I always laugh when calf fries are on a menu. as she held me hostage one weekend and made sure I tried one before Kim and I headed back to school... she never knew I gave it to the dog and even the dog was disgusted. I also still have the bottle of Jack that she gave me on my 21st birthday and will honor her wish to not open it until I turn 100.

I love you all and have you in my thoughts and prayers.
