Her love knew no limits, extending to her five cherished grandchildren Ashlyn, Jaylyn, Averyonna, Ashton, Kevin, & Jude who filled her days with laughter, pride, and pure joy. Mary Jo also shared a special bond with her niece, Melissa, loving her as her own, an unconditional love will always remain.

Together with her soulmate, Mark, Mary Jo built a foundation of love and partnership that inspired everyone who had the fortune of witnessing their journey. Their genuine love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, a never-ending love. Together they welcomed Bella, the family dog, with open arms, as she became an integral part of their lives, providing comfort and unconditional love.

She was not only respected and admired but also genuinely loved by those who had the privilege to work alongside her. Her influence extended beyond the workplace, shaping countless lives and leaving an unforgettable mark.

“ Mary Jo had a smile that made you smile!! I've known her for many years. Amy, and Ashley are my childhood friends and Mary Jo treated me like one of her own that's just the way she was with all the friends. Even at times when we pushed the limits like most teenagers do. She still showed that unconditional love. Mary Jo rest in peace sweet soul. To the family my thoughts and prayers are with each and one of you during this difficult time.
