Mary Frances (Dale) Good

Mary Frances Good, 89, resident of Bartlesville, passed away Friday, July 24, 2015. Mary was born to Homer Elton and Bertha (Maynard) Dale on December 20, 1925 in Enid, Oklahoma. Her early education was in a country school near Garber, Oklahoma. She completed her early schooling in Enid and attended Phillips University, the University of Oklahoma and Oklahoma A&M University. She was awarded her Bachelor of Science in Chemistry at Oklahoma A&M with a minor in German.

In June of 1948 she married William Duane Good of Stillwater, Oklahoma. While living in New Jersey she had her first child, Karen Ayn Good. Later while living in Ponca City, Oklahoma she had her second child, Cynthia Sue Good. After moving to Bartlesville she had her third child, James Keith Good. She treasured her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. Mary and Bill moved to a beautiful country home in 1978 near Hulah Lake where they lived until 2007. Mary enjoyed her beautiful, well organized, flower and vegetable gardens. She loved caring for many things including birds and farm animals. Mary had many dogs that she loved, Maggie the Dog will miss her. Her final years were spent in a garden home in Bartlesville.

Mary was predeceased by her husband Bill, her parents and her sister

Dorothy Williamson. She is survived by her sister Jerry Lutz and sister-in-law Colleen Brinson. Mary's surviving children are Karen Ayn Dean and her husband Marcus, Cynthia Sue Birmingham and her husband Randy, and James Keith Good and his wife Linda. Her grandchildren are Casey Lee Simmons, Kelly (Miller) Pink, William Koehn Good and Amanda Koehn Good. Her great grandchildren are Mahlia Pink, Sadie Simmons, Sage Pink, Atticus Simmons, and Carter Pink.

A debt of thanks is owed the caregivers that helped Mary in the final stage of life. Heartfelt thanks are owed to Hillary, Shelli, Melissa and Sindy. Janice and Robin, you have helped our family so much, thank you. No Funeral Services will be held.
