“ Stephen, I send my condolences to you and the girls. Many times since I have moved back to our hometown area and when in Bartlesville, I often wonder if the Louthans are here visiting their grandmother. I will hold you in my prayers during your time of grieve. Janet Cantrell, Kelsey's Kindergarten teacher

“ I'm so sorry for the loss you must feel.

I enjoyed the many conversations I had with Mary Ellen, and her stories of growing up in Kansas Also, she seemed very proud of her children and grandchildren.

We shared an interest in auctions and antiques, and I admired her taste and elegance.

I will miss her very much.

Sincerely,

James

“ Stephen and Michael and families, I am so deeply sorry to hear about your mom. Stephen, we never have met but I talked to you when I lived in Peidmont. I moved out here and live in Skiatook now. Feel free to email me. I will let Dave Innis know about your mom. His mom passed away late last year. God bless you.
